MISS JEANNE BRUNSON PRESENTED IN RECITAL

The auditorium of Elba High School was the scene of a lovely concert given by Miss Jeanne Brunson, when Mrs. Philip H. Crigler presented Miss Jeanne Brunson in a recital of piano and voice.

Decorations for the stage were carried out in salmon-pink and white, with a pretty arrangement of standard baskets of gladioli and fern.

Miss Brunson played a varied program, using numbers by the old masters as well as modern composers. She showed marked talent and ability in her beautiful interpretation and displayed a brilliant technique in the rendition of each number. She had a most pleasing stage appearance which immediately captivated her audience.

The program included:
Bourée from The Third Violin Suite—Bach.
Sonata Pathétique, opus 13 (Grave)—Allegro di molto e con brio—Beethoven.
Prelude, opus 28, No. 3—Chopin.
Prelude, opus 28, No. 15—Chopin.
Hark, Hark, the Lark—Schubert.
Clair de Lune—Debussy.
Tales of Manon—Cowell.
From the Cambré—Gardner.
Amanida.
Romanze, opus 28, No. 2—Schumann.
Wedding Day, opus 65, No. 6—Grieg.

Miss Brunson was given a lovely creation of dusty pink net over taffeta, featuring a sweet heart neckline. Her corsage was of sweet peas in pastel shades. Immediately following the recital light refreshments were served by members of the High School Music Club from a lace-covered table appointed in crystal. About one hundred fifty guests were invited.

I hope to see each and every one personally to thank you, and will say this method of expressing my thanks to the people of the district.

Sincerely,
WILLIS WILSON.

"MY BREAD AND BUTTER"

RETAIL beer dealers have their troubles when inconsiderate patrons seek to violate ABC laws prohibiting sale to persons visibly intoxicated.

When this situation arose recently in a North Alabama beer outlet, the owner tactfully told the patron:

"I know you wouldn't like for me to make you lose your job. Well, this business is my job. If I sell you beer when you come here visibly intoxicated, I'll lose my job. And that means lose my job. I know you wouldn't want to do that to me."

That type of retailer deserves your patronage. Help us in our "clean up or else" campaign by refraining from asking retail beer dealers to violate the ABC law. Thanking that you have been decent.

JEREMIAH ANNOUNCES THE NEW COVENANT

LESSON TEXT—Jeremiah 31:31-37. GOLDEN TEXT—I will put my law in their hearts, and will be their God, and they shall be my people—Jeremiah 31:33.

God's law written in the hearts of all men—that is the ultimate goal of all our efforts, and therein we will find the solution of all our problems. In the midst of a despairing people with only captivity and sorrow before them because of their sinful rebellion against God, gives a prophetic foreboding of the day when all Israel and Judah should know God. Sin was to be forgiven, fellowship restored, and the people should be able to know God. Obviously, that prophecy is still future for Israel, but in the meantime God has permitted us to enter into the enjoyment of our covenant with Him.

1. The Old Covenant (vs. 31, 32).

The promise of a new covenant at once raises the question, "What was the old covenant?" We do not have space to make any complete study of it, but we note that while God made a great covenant with Abraham, founding the nation of Israel (Gen. 17:14), the reference by Jeremiah is evidently to the covenant with Moses (Exod. 24:20).

We observe that it was
